

Louis XV fireplace with trumeau and sculpted fleur-de-lis lintel

This antique Charente stone fireplace, featuring a stonework trumeau, is a beautiful Louis XV-style fireplace dating from the 18th century. Its lintel is elegantly decorated with a hand-sculpted relief coat of arms, adorned with a fleur-de-lys. The gently curved bolection jambs and the thin molded mantel shelf enhance the overall elegance. A large molding gracefully frames the hearth opening.
