

17th Century stone fireplace with carved trumeau and sculpted cornice

This antique fireplace in stone with large firebox features a pair of jambs with corbels, a decorated monolithic lintel, a thin molded shelf, a trumeau finely carved with various motifs (frame, moldings, columns, garland) and a large overhanging molded cornice. Dating from the late 17th century, this fireplace with overmantel showcases the Louis XIV style by its elaborate trumeau and cornice.
