Antique stone fireplaces and mantels

XIXth and XXth Centuries

Large 19th-century French Regency-style Volvic stone mantelpiece

This impressive 19th-century fireplace surround, carved from Volvic stone (a gray volcanic stone), is a large antique mantelpiece inspired by the French Regency style. The mantel features a pair of straight fluted jambs supporting a gracefully curved lintel that acts as a shelf. The lintel is adorned with moldings, cartouches, and a refined geometric motif at its center. A unique model.
