Antique wrought-iron gates

Over 3-meters large antique openwork gate in white-painted wrought iron

This antique double-door gate of over 3 meters wide is made of solid wrought iron painted in white and features two fully openwork doors. It is constructed of squared-section wrought iron and flat iron for all the hand-forged decorations (volutes and tori). Riveted and welded construction. Beautiful surface rust patina. Unique model, sold as is with its four mounting hinges. The lock will require restoration.
